

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

July 13th, 2008

Mathew 11:28-30

Paul affirms a solidarity of the human and non-human world in the redemption of Christ. We are born onto an earth of rivers, mountains, plains, forests, animals, birds, fish and plants in their millions. This is the habitat in which God placed us, where we have evolved, and which we have made our own.

I pray, Lord, that the heaven you prepare for me will echo in some way the earth which I have loved.

FOR SOME, SUMMERTIME IS THE TIME FOR A PILGRIMAGE

Various Shrine organizations sent us their publicity inviting us to their annual celebrations. Of course, we are all on pilgrimage in different ways. It is not a bad idea to join fellow pilgrims at spots that have meant a lot to others on their journey. Here follows the list that we have received:

Sunday, July 27:

70th Anniversary of Pilgrimage to the Shrine of St. Ann in Cormac

(Highway 512 between Eganville & Foymount)

For information 613 628-2020

Sunday, August 10:

54th Pilgrimage to Our Lady of Knock Shrine in Mayo

(From Buckingham, go 309 North to Junction 315 North to Mayo)

For information 819 986-3763

I have a soft spot for this one. I worked on it with many others for six years with great delight. And considering the price of gas, this is pretty close.

St. Joseph's Oratory of Mount Royal in Montreal, where Brother André has a special place. Various services are offered, with an English Mass every Sunday at 11:15 a.m. in the crypt church.

For information 514 733-8211

CAMP AWESOME: This summer, Camp Awesome will take place at Aylmer United Church, 164, rue Principale during the week of August 18th to 22nd, from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. for children aged 4-12 years. It is an ecumenical event sponsored by the churches in the Aylmer Ministerial Association (St. Mark's Catholic Church, Christ Church Anglican, Aylmer United, St. Andrew's Presbyterian, Potter's Wheel Christian Fellowship and Vendocia Ministries). Registration: Please register by June 30, 2008 (the first 40 children will be accepted).
